2005 Road World Championships

Elite Men's Road Race:

Committee reviews the athletes in contention for the third position on the Elite Men's Road Race team for the 2005 Road World Championships.

Three riders are given strong consideration (in alphabetical order):

- Charles Dionne
- Ryder Hesjedal
- Dominique Perras

Goal remains to send the best team possible.

MOTION:

To nominate Ryder Hesjedal as the third starter for the Elite Men's Road Race at the 2005 Road World Championships and to name Dominique Perras as the first alternate and Charles Dionne as the second alternate.

Proposed: Denise Kelly

Seconded: Chantale Philie

APPROVED

Elite Women Road Race:

Lyne Bessette has submitted a request to the CCA to skip the Road World Championships and this has been approved by the Director, High Performance Program. Alison Sydor will take her position.

Geneviève Jeanson has withdrawn from the Road World Championships, citing an injury. Medical documentation has been requested to support this claim. The National Coach in charge of the road program is evaluating potential replacements.

Amy Moore was involved in a serious crash at the Holland Ladies Tour. She will be able to take the start at the Road World Championships.

2006 Commonwealth Games

Track trials are being held in Burnaby from October 11-13, 2005. It might be best to discuss the final selections for the Commonwealth Games until October 14th.
